

TOM:

In the war, I...I saw things that no human being should ever have to see. A guy comes back from something like that, and he can't believe in God. It's impossible. That's what anyone'll tell you. I was raised to believe in God and the saints and in miracles. But then there was this war and after it, I couldn't believe in anything good. But when I first saw Katie, the first thing, the only thing I thought when I saw her face was that there had to be a God, because he made her. That was the only explanation. And I was a praying man again. Talk about a miracle. Do you know that they pulled bones out of her body while she was still alive. Lifted them right out. I was going to grow old with that woman. I was going to die with her. Maybe I have. Could you tell me how to live my life now? Could you tell me what I'm going to do with all this time? I have to go. I have to go see my kids. I have to get home before they go to bed. I sing to them. They sing to me. A lullaby. Even though we're all too old for it. It's our little routine. It makes us feel better. It's just something we do. Sir? Just so you know... Every morning I wake up and wonder if today's the day I'm going to kill Rufus Reed.
